

#UNLEASHED COACHING PROGRAM

SHINE YOUR LIGHT. MAKE MONEY. CHANGING LIVES.

Pre-Work
WWW.PACHIMCLEOD.COM

Wow Love, Welcome!

YOU did it.
You dared.
You said Yes!

If you're here, you've been given a VISION, a dream, a calling... What do YOU see thru your camera length? What are you doing? What people? From which countries? What offerings and ideas? What programs? What stages? What do YOU see?

I love this phrase from the book You Can Do It "Almost everything we enjoy today was impossible yesterday... Deep inside you lives an impossible thought. A dream longing to come true. A mission residing in you put there by your Heavenly Father."

My love, YOU are here to share a message that is meant to change lives and the only way to it is ONE step at a time. ONE risk at a time. ONE yes or no at a time.

Pachi

It's YOUR time!

THEN THE GOD REPLIED:
"WRITE DOWN THE VISION AND
MAKE IT PLAIN, THAT THE ONE WHO READS IT MAY RUN WITH IT."

Habakkuk 2:2

Note: I REALLY recommend reading
The One Word That Will Change Your Life

ASK FOR THE DOWNLOADS

REAL CHANGE 1ST STARTS IN YOUR HEART

Ask for the Downloads

1. Exactly what would it look like ONCE you reach your goal? Let your imagination get the downloads and let it be SO specific, bright and bold, that you can reach for it...

Give yourself permission to imagine in DETAIL the goal/calling/ assignment you're feeling guided to bring to life.

Imagine (SEE) yourself BEING a better woman, mom, business owner, anything else you are being called to BEEEE.

(It's important to get specific because it tells your brain WHERE you're headed... you're focusing on what you want MOST...

Note: THIS is also how we remove resistance... as your brain begins to get USE to SEEING these images, it begins to accept them as REAL and available for you.

Ask for the Downloads

2. Exactly what happens when you reach this goal?

- How do you FEEL?
- How do your relationships look like, now that you've reached your goal?
- How much fun are you having?

Note: Let's get detailed SOOO your brain can begin to SEE what your spirit already sees. Ideas will begin to come to MOVE YOU FORWARD... so don't worry about the HOW/ right now... I PROMISE we will have enough time to go game plan crazy!!! lol

Ask for the Downloads

3. Write down 5-10 things you'll HAVE, when you reach your goal

Note: Another reason for this exercise is to INCREASE YOUR FAITH. Increasing what you SEE/IMAGINE, also increases your beliefs around RECEIVING and opening up to receive more. THIS IS HOW WE QUANTUM LEAP... We tap into a LEVEL OF FAITH greater than we ever have, before, focusing on things we didn't even think were available, before. ONE idea could bring in more clients, results and money than you could have ever thought possible... BECAUSE you're choosing to use, release and ACTIVATE your faith.

BUILDING RATHER THAN WATCHING

COMPOUNDING WITH ALIGNED ACTIONS
AND THE RIGHT GAME PLAN FOR YOU

Building & Compounding

Having a GAME PLAN, and getting clear on your ACTIONS is very important. Like one of my favorite Bible verses says: "faith without the CORRESPONDING action is useless (dead).

None of the spiritual and internal work we're doing matters, if we're not taking the steps. The law of attraction works with the law of ACTION. SOOOO we'll be taking plenty of action!

What I want to help you do is to take a DIFFERENT kind of action. The kind of action that is ACTUALLY in alignment with YOU, your journey, your specific calling and where you're at, right now.

I believe we each come with a "manual"... meaning, because we're each wired differently, have different gifts and strengths... we're not all meant to do the same thing.

For example: some of my clients have made most of their money with online followers, others with offline followers, others a combination of both.

The Offers (Containers)

1. What offers/programs are you MOST EXCITED to use as the containers to help help your people transform their lives, now?
2. Who are these offers for? (get specific)

The Offers (Containers)

3. HOW does this offers/programs CHANGES and transform the lives of those who sign up?

4. What happens to YOU if you don't show up and if they don't get this program/offer(s)?

The Offers (Containers)

5. What happens to THEM if you don't show up and if they don't get this program/offer(s)?

6. What happens to YOUR FAMILY (loved ones) if you don't show up and if they don't get this program/offer(s)?

The Offers (Containers)

7. Why are YOU the person to create this offer/program and to help THEM? (hence because you're called, your own experiences are the strongest whys I know)

The Offers (Containers)

8. HOW has applying these steps or principles you're teaching them change YOUR own life? (this is where a lot of your message and brand stories come from... talking about how THIS has already made such a big difference in YOUR life, that you must help and share it with them, too)

The Offers (Containers)

9. WHY is now the time for you to share this offer/program?
WHY can you not wait until next month, year, or the future? (this will build the FIRE under your booty!

THE RELATIONSHIP FUNNEL

"GIVING YOUR GIFT MAKES ROOM FOR YOU"

Relationship Funnel

1. How are you MOST EXCITED to attract or call in your humans?
2. How are you MOST EXCITED to engage your bff humans?

Relationship Funnel

3. How are you MOST EXCITED to sell your humans take action?

4. How are you MOST EXCITED to deliver your program/offers?

I believe that as long as we're caught up in wanting more "stuff" and status to make us feel good rather than in becoming more purposeful about expanding our consciousness, we'll continue to come up short in having enough personal power to effect significant, transformational change.

Anyone, whoever, who passionately pursues a mission that's aligned with his or her own inner purpose can have a profound impact on family, community, and society in general.
HE or SHE can MOVE mountains.
